CHILD PROTECTION POLICY
Center for the Prevention and Treatment of Child Sexual Abuse (CPTCSA)

All staff, board members and volunteers must read and sign our child protection policy below:

CPTCSA is committed to upholding the law on child rights and welfare. This includes the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. CPTCSA believes that all children have a right to protection from abuse irrespective of race, social background, age, gender, skin color, disability, religion or beliefs. CPTCSA believes that child sexual abuse and exploitation is wrong. Keeping silent is also wrong, if it is known that a child is being abused or exploited. CPTCSA believes in the importance of child protection, so that not only are children protected from abuse CPTCSA committee members, staff, donors, and volunteers, but also that preventative measures can be made to protect the CPTCSA staff, and the CPTCSA own integrity. CPTCSA believes that children have the right to speak and be heard. Therefore, where possible children will also be included as stakeholders and in research and other relevant reports/evaluations.

The different forms of child abuse are described by:

Physical Abuse: Actual or likely physical injury to a child, or failure to prevent physical injury, or suffering, to a child, including deliberate hitting, beating, shaking, throwing, burning, drowning, suffocating or poisoning.

Mental/Emotional Abuse: Actual or likely severe adverse effect on the emotional and behavioural development of a child caused but persistent or severe emotional ill treatment or rejection. May involve conveying to the child that they are worthless, unloved or inadequate and cause children to feel frightened, in danger and corrupted.

Neglect: The persistent or severe neglect of a child or the failure to protect a child from exposure to any kind of danger, including cold and starvation, or extreme failure to carry out important aspects of care, resulting in the significant impairment of the child’s health of development, including non-organic failure to thrive.

Sexual Abuse: Actual or likely exploitation of a child or adolescent, representing the involvement of dependent, developmentally immature children and adolescents in sexual activities they do not truly comprehend, to which they are unable to give informed consent or that violate social taboos or family rules, such as touching a child’s genitals, forcing a child to watch or take part in pornography or coercing the child to have sex. It is considered abuse whether or not the child consents.

Spiritual Abuse: Spiritual abuse occurs when a spiritual leader, or someone in a position of spiritual power or authority (whether organization, institution, church or family) misuses their power or authority, and the trust placed in them, with the intention of controlling, coercing, manipulating, or dominating a child. Spiritual abuse is always about the misuse of power within a framework of spiritual belief or practice, in order to meet the needs of the abuser (or enhance his or her position) at the expense of the needs of the child. Spiritual abuse results in spiritual harm to a child and can be linked to other abuse, such as physical, emotional and sexual abuse. (Refer to Indicators of Spiritual Abuse for warning signs).

PROTOCOLS:

CPTCSA expects all its partner organizations, committee members, staff, volunteers and visitors to give respect and dignity to all children associated with the work of CPTCSA.

CPTCSA BOT members, staff, volunteers and visitors with direct contact with projects and children must sign a statement to say that they have read the policy, will respect it and understand that action will be taken in cases of inappropriate behavior. This will lead to disciplinary action and possible job loss for staff or dismissal of BOT members or volunteers who break these protocols.

It will not be permissible for CPTCSA, volunteers and visitors to take photographs or video footage of children. Authorization should be sought from the Executive Director/BOT and strict regulations will be implemented on the nature of how photographs are taken. These photographs and/or video will not be used for any other purpose outside CPTCSA without prior permission.

CPTCSA committee members, staff, volunteers and visitors will not discipline a child in a way that is against the Convention on the Rights of the Child. This effectively means no tolerance to any form of violence against the child.

CPTCSA committee members, staff, volunteers and visitors need to be aware that they may work with children who, because of the circumstances and abuses they have experienced, may use a relationship to obtain “special attention”. The adult is always considered responsible even if a child behaves seductively. Adults should avoid being placed in a compromising or vulnerable position.

Inappropriate behavior toward children, including failure to follow CPTCSA protocols or sexual abuse of a child is grounds for discipline, up to and including dismissal from employment, volunteer/internship or board/advisory council membership.

CPTCSA committee members, staff, volunteers and visitors must be concerned about perception and appearance in their language, actions and relationships with minors and children.

CPTCSA committee members, staff, volunteers and visitors should maintain a high standard of behavior/character in presence of children. (Example: should not use any unacceptable language in the presence of a child)
Inexperienced and unauthorized CPTCSA staff and volunteers should not try to handle children who are undergoing treatment program. These children should be directed to CPTCSA Treatment Program Unit.

CPTCSA committee members, staff and volunteers should seek to live up to the CPTCSA Mission Statement and Core Values in all relationship with others in any circumstances.

CPTCSA committee members, staff, volunteers and visitors will be carefully and properly screened during their recruitment period, including obtaining a police check where possible.

CPTCSA committee members, staff and volunteers will be carefully and properly screened during their recruitment period, which includes signing to agree to the Child Protection Policy and stating that there have been no previous convictions for abuse against children, violent behavior or improper conduct.

CPTCSA will ensure that all the references of approved local candidates for work are checked, preferably by telephone, and recorded in the staff files before the new staff member is invited to take the position. This will include a verbal and written request to the referee of whether they have any concerns as to why the candidate should be employed to work with children.

CPTCSA staff, volunteers and visitors agree to inform the Director/Committee Member immediately if new information arises that casts doubt on the team member’s trustworthiness with children. Such information would be treated as confidential and disclosed to the individual team member for appropriate action.

Individuals who are hired as independent contractors are notified of CPTCSA Policy and Required Standards for Child Protection and are made aware that they are expected to follow behavior protocols set out below.

In the best interests of children, offices should not hire anyone with a prior conviction for child abuse, pedophilia or related offences. In the event that local law prohibits this broad a hiring rule, no person with a conviction for child abuse, pedophilia or related offences may be hired into any position, which includes direct access to children. CPTCSA reserves the right not to hire an applicant if the background check reveals that the person is not suitable to work with children.

CPTCSA will confer with other organisations in a case where the child involved requires extra protection.

Records will be made of all facts related to the investigation and allegation, and these will be carefully and confidentially filed by the Committee. (Refer to allegation forms)
